Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Most of us have learned to be independent, to handle things on our own. In fact, some may have perfected their own little routine in coping with life s trials-self-sufficiency at its best. But, what if you find yourself at the end of your rope and desperately in need of something greater than what you can produce? What do you do? It s surprising the lengths we go to. But, again, I ask you, what do you do when you have been in a long session of despair and see no light? No matter how different we may be, we all have similar struggles, and yes, there is help to walk us through our problems. There is a hope that changes things. His name is Jesus.
