[Nancy Leigh DeMoss shares practical principles for living a life that is holy and having a heart that is set on fire for God. Holiness is often thought of as an abstract concept that shouldn't get too personal or interfere with our lifestyles. The thought of being "holy" conjures up images of somber, straitlaced people, or a monk-like existence. However, holiness should not be thought of as burdensome-sin is the real burden. Nancy Leigh DeMoss guides us in our journey to the fullest experience of God. Available in English from Moody Publishers.].
