

The Business Podcasting Bible: Wherever My Market Is. I Am (Paperback)

By Paul Colligan

Morgan James Publishing llc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Internet and the introduction of the mp3 player quietly launched a change in communication many believe more important than the World Wide Web. This disruptive change is called Podcasting, and it is the future of business media. Millions are consuming Podcast content - at the time and place of their choosing. They are in control, and they will never give it back. For businesses that embrace this technology, the result is a level of communication intimacy they could only once but dream of. Businesses who implement this new meme for media exchange will build relationships more profitable than ever. Those who pass on Podcasting as a fad will suffer the same fate as those who waited for the Internet to fade away. The Business Podcasting Bible reveals how Business Podcasting can be used to maximize business intimacy, accelerate communication, and boost your bottom line. Discover how the time and place shifting of media content puts the power of the Internet into the hands of your audience and lets you know that wherever my audience is, I am. Flip to...
