Peter J. Morris, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An ordinary Mormon boy finds himself doing extraordinary things in a land far from home; Pete s decision to leave his loved ones and all things familiar, becomes one of the greatest challenges he would ever face. The boundaries of his comfort zone are put to the test as he endeavors to seek out and find those who are searching for answers to the many questions that arise as we all sojourn through this mortal life; at the same time, he develops a deeper understanding of those things, and discovers a mighty change within himself. Ironically, there is little difference between Pete and the thousands of young men who continue to make that same decision to go and do the same thing every day. Upon further inspection many years later, Pete discovers that his seemingly ordinary mission was anything but ordinary. This story is ideal for young men and women who are planning or preparing to serve an LDS Mission and for those who have already served. It is also suited for those not familiar with the LDS Church and want to know what serving a mission is all about.
