Excerpt: . . . read in ii Timothy 3: 16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God. In this connection Paul used a significant word; he reminded Timothy that from a child he had known the holy Scriptures. Holy is the same word that is used for the most holy place in the tabernacle; the inner room where dwelt the presence of God. Therefore from the Bibles own testimony we conclude that, in their original form, these writings were Divinely given. How this was done we are not told and it is idle to speculate on theories of the mode of inspiration when the important thing is the fact of inspiration. Now we will take up the second part of the first question: When was the Bible written We have no record of inspired writings before the time of Moses; that is about twenty-five hundred years after...
