FADE TO GRAY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I raised my hand to her cheek, and easing her from the stool, I backed us to the couch. We fell down atop the dust covers, our legs twisted together. I was senseless, out of my head where she was concerned, unable to explain why she got to me so much. I only knew that something in me had changed, something no other girl had ever touched, and nothing but time with her could solve it. ----- The son of a wealthy businessman and politician, Arsen Bain appears to have it made. But behind closed doors, his father s longstanding extramarital affair and his mother s depression have combined to create an atmosphere fueling self-destructive rage. He ll strike out at anyone who gets in his way. Who cares if his behavior causes embarrassment to his father s name? When fellow high school graduate, beautiful Caia Maceo, rescues him from yet another moment of public humiliation, now in her debt, he sees a chance to get back at his dad and, perhaps, sweet talk the girl he s had his eye on for over a year. If he plays his cards right, their unplanned weekend together will end his way - with her in his bed and his troubles at home miles away. But what was meant to be one of his flings is different from the start. Here s someone who understands him, a girl with her own set of issues and a no nonsense attitude toward the angry rich kid he s become. Opening his heart has huge consequences to their future, though. A future, that one final life-changing event might destroy unless he takes the hand...
