John isn't exactly what you'd call a ladies man. Down on his luck and dedicated to his hobbies, these days he's lucky if he can find a woman to talk to other than his mother. Fortunately, a fateful meeting has him bumping into Brenda, a fashionable estate agent who's as smart as she is beautiful. As luck would have it, the two hit it off, and John's eyes are slowly opened to a whole world of beauty that's been under his nose this whole time. Unfortunately for John, Brenda isn't the only woman after his heart, as colleague Celine secretly vies for his affections. In a similar twist of fate, Brenda's teen love Michael returns after a sixteen-year absence, threatening to throw another spanner in the works for our two budding lovers. As the four characters' stories intertwine and over the course of this hugely entertaining romance story, each one realizes that true love is always found in the most unlikely of situations. Family, possibility, and romance are brought to the forefront in Boniface Ossai's novel, The Eccentric and...
