Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.For young boys living in the early years of the 20th century, baseball was often a main pastime, if not an obsession. Back in the time of Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, and Christy Mathewson, and the glory days of baseball, children followed every move of their favorite players in the hopes of eventually having one chance meeting. The Babe Comes to Hartford is the story of a boy living in Hartford, Connecticut during the time of World War I. He is a huge fan of the Boston Red Sox and their star pitcher and slugger Babe Ruth. One day he hears the most wonderful news of his life; The Babe is coming to town to play in an exhibition game to benefit the soldiers fighting in France. It's the chance of a lifetime. He must find a way to see the Babe play in the ballgame. He must also find a way to do the impossible; meet his hero during his brief stay in the capitol city. Can he scrape together enough money to buy a ticket to the game? With two...
