May you be filled with power from above as you read through this life transforming tool . During my period of prayers and meditation, I remembered that all that David did was to play the instrument and made music for the healing of King Saul. And so it was, whenever the spirits from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him. 1Samuel 16:23 I also know that David wasn t the most talented instrumentalist in Israel. But he was singled out because of the operation of God s power in his life. He wasn t like others who basically relied on talent and skill. For him, skill mingled with power was his focus. This accounted for why he was recommended as the one to...
