Naturally Feel Good, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Restoring your skin s natural glow has never been easier than with Nan Brown and Lil Bogdan s Nurse Your Skin to Health. With chemical-laden products stripping the skin, most women don t realize that the expensive washes, lotions, and creams they buy may actually be causing more harm than good. As registered nurses with more than twenty years of experience working with burn patients and others suffering from challenging dermatological conditions, Brown and Bogdan found themselves growing frustrated with the lack of natural choices for skincare. With so much marketing hype, it can be a confusing process to find the products that are right for you. But Brown and Bogdan set the record straight from the thousands of conversations they ve had over the years with those coping with everything from wrinkles to sun damage to rosacea and cancer. As pioneers in medically based natural skincare, Brown and Bogdan will help you question your skincare choices, and in the process, create genuine healthy, great-looking skin-regardless of your age. Nurse Your Skin to Health will empower you to make healthy choices, not only for your individual skin type but in every aspect of your life.
