Roy Hough, Frog Mott s best friend, is now a high school student as is another of Frog s friends, Arthur Shell. Roy is a star of his high school baseball team while Arthur is a loner, befriended only by Roy and Connie Dunn, Roy s friend and the female manager of the boy s baseball team. The story follows the fortunes of Roy s high school team through a season, Arthur s blossoming into a sociable young grownup, the burgeoning relationship between Roy and Connie and the role all three of the young friends find themselves in when Roy s mother inherits a house and money and becomes a potential victim of a young tennis pro who wants to take advantage of her. This is a story of small-town, Midwest America in the 1950 s with all the endearing qualities that make that memories of that era remain in the minds of many as one of our country s last times of innocence.
