

Hagar (1913). by: Mary Johnston: (Original Version) (Paperback)

By Professor Mary Johnston

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Original. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The first female novelist to top twentieth-century best-seller lists, Mary Johnston was also one of the most prominent and interesting southern suffragists. Hagar, an extraordinary prescient novel published in 1913, brings together her fictional flair and her serious committed feminism. An introduction by Marjorie Spruill Wheeler locates the novel in its historical context and enhances its value to the study of women in southern, and American, history and literature. . Mary Johnston (November 21, 1870 - May 9, 1936) was an American novelist and women s rights advocate from Virginia. She was one of America s best selling authors during her writing career and had three silent films adapted from her novels. Early life: Mary Johnston was born in the small town of Buchanan, Virginia, the eldest child of John William Johnston, an American Civil War veteran, and Elizabeth Dixon Alexander Johnston. Due to frequent illness, she was educated at home by family and tutors. She grew up with a love of books and was financially independent enough to devote herself to writing. Career as novelist Johnston wrote historical books and...
