

Strange Twist of Fate (Paperback)

By Gilvarry Vincent Gilvarry, Vincent Gilvarry

Trafford Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Two kids embark on an adventure of a lifetime and discover more than they ever wanted to know, take on more than it s possible to believe, and in the process, are transformed into something they could never have imagined. Adrik and Diego would never have left home if they had known what the universe had in store. They were under the impression that they were just two average kids heading off on yet another holiday, but this wouldn t be like any holiday they ve ever had before. From the very moment their journey begins, everything that could go wrong, does so. They are catapulted into a series of bizarre adventures that takes them deep into a mysterious dimensional realm where they discover their real identity and the task that still lies ahead. Things might have been different if they had known who they were and where they were going. Things might have been very different if they hadn t been hounded by a militant armadillo, one very focused mystic, an itinerant secret agent and a posse of nosey little nature...
