Outside the Box Publishing. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 310 pages. Dimensions: 9.3in. x 6.2in. x 1.2in. Eddie Bond So Help Me God Death smiles upon us all, but Eddie Bond shows no fear and smiles back. He is a warrior for God. All his days will be spent in hardship and chaos. His will cannot be broken and there is no way to corrupt his beliefs. He fights for the right of others to choose because the right to choose follows the right to life given by God. For him, God is the director of the great play of life and he is merely a tool to be used. This warrior has no expectations of rewards in life. He expects only the consequence of choice that his next fight will bring. When he dreams it is only to show the direction he must take. There is pain and grief in his being because he understands humanity's expectation of life. This book was written to help understand how events influence us as we live. It is not about judgments and no one is to be accused of wrongdoing. It is for helping to think and understand what is important to us and how consequences can be silently played out by our choices. Many warriors have sacrificed their life so those who could not choose or be allowed to dream could have the privilege of choice. From the ashes, those who should have perished rose up to enhance humanity. While those who sacrificed discovered their purpose and remain only in the memories and dreams of those who are left behind to contemplate the consequences of being a warrior. A warrior that swings the sword in one hand to strike down evil and injustice while with the other he holds the hand of God....
