Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .is he. whose sin is covered. that his sin has lost all its glamour and is no longer tricked out in the alluring guise in which it first beguiled him. It may be he is now as utterly ashamed of it as before he was fascinated by it: he realizes what a fool he has been. But this does not win absolution: it is not repentance: it is, as yet, only the sorrow of the world, and if it goes no further, it will work death. It is not yet the godly sorrow that works repentance unto life: he is still cut off from God and continues to be in his sin, until he arises and goes to his Father and says, Father, I have sinned . How then is he to do this? He must frankly tell God of all his sins, accepting the shame of such confession. There is no promise of forgiveness in the Bible apart from confession of sin. It is absolutely necessary that we go to our Father and unreservedly tell Him the worst about ourselves. If we confess our sins (this is the condition), He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins. So far as it is in our power, we must make to God a definite confession of our sins, not simply saying that we have sinned, but confessing our sins . Of course we cannot remember all: God knows our weakness. But if we will not...
