The novellas are about men and women of every age. In the book are different stages of life. The story 'Eveline' is a childhood story. The story 'A Painful Case' is an adulthood story. Terence Brown describes the work 'as a book of churches' (Brown XXX). For Joyce, church and faith are very important, and Dublin and its citizens are characterised by the Christian religion. Although the stories are all self-contained, the book can be read as a whole. As the reader will notice by reading there are many links between the different stories and they take place in the same city - Dublin. When James Joyce wrote the book, he had already left Ireland for France in order to study medicine. This could be a possible hint to why the...
