Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The thinking child is not antisocial (he is, in fact, the only type of child fit for social relationships). -Ayn Rand, The Return of the Primitive I want a sand castle, said Bobby. It is not fair that you have a sand castle and I do not have a sand castle. Ella loves the beach, but with no shovel and no pail, how will she build a sand castle? And when she thinks for herself and finds a way to build one, must she share it with others? The principles of Objectivism and the thoughts of Ayn Rand come to life as Ella and her friends at the beach discover both the pride of ownership and the destructive nature of Socialism. Stop the thoughtless celebration of Altruism. Celebrate Reason instead!.
