In a dystopian world where most of the human race has been wiped out by a mysterious disease, a small, intrepid band of people led by a former priest and the last descendants of Jesus of Nazareth himself encounter action and adventure and mystery in their search for answers. From the streets of London to the deep caverns beneath Area 51, their journey takes them to the heart of an alien conspiracy and coverup stretching back over fifty years, involving operatives of the shady Majestic 12, an organisation with more power than any of them can imagine. Father Marco Scallezi, the victim of an attempted assassination, wakes from a coma to discover that weeks have passed and the world he knew no longer exists the entire population of London has been wiped out by a plague. Disturbed by this reality of science fiction adventure beckons him to discover the cause of the cataclysm, and as he sets forth into the cold empty streets he encounters Kimberley, the girl who saved his life, fending off a pack of feral dogs. Together...
