Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Can a Dream Change Your Life? Secrets of the Laughing Wave author Carl Lyle Jenkins says the dream revealed in this beautifully illustrated book showed him the way to self-healing and living a happy life. Dreams are powerful. And there is much more to our dreams than first meets the eye. Dreams often reveal deep truths about our lives. If we choose to look at our nocturnal inner lives, we may discover things that will change us forever. In his intriguing book, Secrets of the Laughing Wave author Carl Lyle Jenkins shares the transformative insights that were presented to him in one such dream. In this lucid dream, the author-whom we find in the midst of a painful mid-life crisis--is swept away by a remarkable phenomenon he calls The Laughing Wave. This incredible entity, joyfully laughing all the while, miraculously merges with Carl and spirals him through a seemingly endless series of deeply meaningful and inspiring visions. The Laughing Wave shows him in no uncertain terms why he is feeling so miserable. It reminds Carl to stop taking himself so seriously, puts his very human problems into clear perspective, and causes those same issues to disappear in peals of joyous laughter. This dream--if it can indeed be called that--had a profound impact on Carl's attitudes and feelings about life. Secrets of the Laughing Wave is about overcoming fear, forgiveness of self and others, ending the victim role, and accepting responsibility for our part in creating life's experiences. Individuals seeking inspiration to heal from grief, personal loss, divorce, and depression may find this book particularly helpful. Anyone interested in dreams and dream analysis, New Age Philosophy, or exploring...
