Ordered: That a Commission consisting of the City Engineer and two other expert engineers who shall be named by the Mayor, be appointed to examine all grade crossings in the City, make plans of the same as they now are, together with plans of proposed changes, and report to this Board the most beneficial way to the City, to have said grade crossings abolished. The expense for the same shall be charged to street construction. Approved December 23d, 1890. (Signed) Francis A. Harrington, Mayor. As soon as practicable we met at the City Hall and advertised a public hearing to beheld in the Council Chamber on March 14, 1891.This hearing was attended by citizens, who expressed their views freely, and suggested for our consideration several methods by which the desired object might be attained. The opinion was unanimous that the grade crossings of the City of Worcester were a source of great danger and inconvenience to the inhabitants, and that the time had come for their abolition. The methods which were suggested were as follows: First. To remove the railroads with their stations and sidings out of the thickly settled parts of the City.
