Simon & Schuster, 2006. Hardcover. Condition: New. The general plot revolves around the Government's attempts to control population growth and the scarcity of food caused by a drought (Among the Enemy, p. 83). In this turmoil, the democratic government has been overthrown and a totalitarian government has been put in its place. Laws established by the regime prohibit a family from having more than two children. Luke Garner is an illegal third child along with Trey, Nina, Matthias, Percy, and Alia. He has been working from within the Population Police at the stables in hopes of slowly overthrowing them and bringing about freedom.
