Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This in detail look at the author s experience of a brain tumor and how she was diagnosed, survived, and managed will inspire any person or caretaker. Her twelve years of genuinely giving herself to this memoir is an all healing, love, and courage. Keeping in mind that a brain tumor patient may be the one who reads these precious words, Kayla kept the chapters short and the words simple while revealing to the brain tumor world a place to keep close to heart. Knowing that having a brain tumor is devastating, she compiled a list of questions and answers, gave her do or die testimony, and created a book that any patient or caregiver can pick up and have the knowledge is power feeling. After her brain tumor was removed, long before social media, she tread water herself and had to thrive and jump around this medical world to put her best foot forward. I can only hope to enlighten a person s catastrophic diagnosis with some recall of what I have learned.
