Rocket City Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 72 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Welcome to the Symmetrical Universe Spaceship and Steampunk coloring book! I hope you enjoy contemplating and coloring these complex images inspired by science fiction. I drew every image in this book with pen and ink on 14x17 paper. My drawings are all done by hand, using fine tipped Rapidograph pens. The way my process works is first I use a ruler and a compass to generate a pencil line grid. Once the grid is in place I then draw the designs in ink. The images are randomly generated and sometimes change significantly during the process of creating them. The drawings are created by drawing one symmetrical feature at a time, much like growing a crystal. These drawings are inspired by my interest in science fiction and machinery. My drawings are also expressions of the inherent beauty found in symmetrical structures. I began drawing mandalas while attending Indian Springs School in Helena, Alabama in the 1970s. My first mandala drawings began as simple experiments requiring a few hours to design. This eventually led to the more complex designs which required 80 to 100 hours to complete. Some drawings are abstract geometrical designs. In others, I have tried to incorporate archetypal symbols and shapes similar to Rorschach patterns which may invoke a variety of conceptualizations to viewers of my artwork. In this book, each section includes an original drawing which may be too detailed to color. The following pages are all more detailed images of sections of each drawing for you to enjoy and color. If you are interested in coloring an original drawing in the original size, order a print from www.symmetricaluniverse.com. To get the most out of this book, I recommend using colored pencils, fine-point...
