REPORTS ON THE PAINTINGS OF THE T. B. WALKER ART COLLECTIONS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

From the beginning of the Report. The seeker of the beautiful, whose knowledge of art is based in the main upon the great treasures of European Galleries would, I am sure, receive many startling surprises upon his first visit to the Walker Galleries in Minneapolis; a private gallery generously opened to the public daily, yet is far from being as well known as the great museums on this Continent and abroad, whose names are constantly on people's lips. It is very difficult, indeed, for me through fear of being accused of making exaggerated statements, to set forth my impressions appropriately of this notable collection, but I feel that the only way in which justly and adequately to describe the T. B. Walker Gallery at Minneapolis, is to say that it teems with great works of art, chosen with rare discrimination from the field of paintings and ceramics, carved Jades, porcelains and pottery, Roman and Egyptian jewelry; the paintings alone, however, are considered in this report. And it may be safely asserted that not only among private collections, but also as compared to the leading public galleries, it ranks among the greatest, in comprehensiveness, variety of subjects and artistic quality, permitting a clear insight into the important European periods of painting, beginning with the Italian Renaissance, and reaching into the Romanticistic periods of Europe, towards the end of the last century. More-over, to the student of art of our own country, this splendid collection is no less interesting, showing in many typical examples, the struggles for artistic expression and ultimate achievements of our earlier painters, in the field of portraiture, as well as in landscape painting. The gathering of this...
