They meet each other in the reign of sense. Their play will be intrigued by their own rules. Willing bodies, understanding girl friends, funny nonsense, alternate with the contradiction of unavoidable. Love and devotion. Sadness and mourning. The reader has no time to relax. Ben is a gem dealer, travelling all over the world. He knows the world. Nevertheless he remains mysterious. Always looking for the very special thrill. During an extreme love game he simulates his death. What he drives to and which consequences that will have, contributes to increase the suspense of this short thriller. Miriam is much more approachable. She allows to be observed with her eternally best girl friend. She gives deep flashbacks into her past. And she is the one, who involves the reader with deepest emotions. They love with her. They sorrow with her. She is a gambler who loves the risk. In the same way, her emotions and feelings are full of courage and tolerance. Nevertheless, she is always looking for respect, love and safety. Will she continue playing or will she find a person with whom she wants to share her life? The suspense remains until the last line.
