Delbert hopes for Gods approval and unconditional love, something he never received from his earthly father. Sherry wants what she never had: a real family for herself and her eight-year-old daughter, Hayley. Another home-group member, James, appears to be the perfect solution for Sherry. Things seem to be going well, until Hayley inexplicably begins to change. It soon becomes apparent that something is terribly wrong with the little girl. When the ghosts of Delberts past come to light, the blame falls squarely on him. With young Haley Bentleys life at stake, everyones faith is tested as they grapple with the demons of their pasts and find the strength to trust in God as never before....
