The Five Sword of Nalin Volume 1

By Adam Lawson

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 292 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. How common is magic, really? It was a simple question, but it didn't come with a simple answer. That answer always depended on both where you were asking it, and what you defined as magic. Zern found out just how little magic mattered when her home was attacked and her brother murdered by an ancient sorceress who had the power of alien technology far beyond anything she could have imagined. In the chaos, the fear took over and she forgot all her training. She panicked, and she used powers she didn't quite understand to do something she hadn't thought through. Now she found herself trying to help three confused scientists and their friend escape the same dangerous moth-eaten grudge that she herself was caught in. The four heroes she sought to join the Five were willing, but not able, to fend off Ciel Aria and her sycophants. Now their goal was simple: Stay low and prepare until the right time, and then strike with a fury no one expected. But there were complications, including the evil that haunted her dreams...
