But we must stop--our business now is to deal with the actual, every-day operations of the farm, rather than its policy. COTTON PLANTING. Late-planted cotton grows off better than early planted, but in localities where the seasons are short, it is important to plant early, to secure maturing of the crop. In such cases the plant may be pushed off by supplying it with easily assimilated food, immediately within reach, as by soaking seed in stable-manure water and rolling in plaster, or rolling in ammoniated fertilizers, or applying small quantities of these (say 50 lbs.) in the drill with the seed....
