Xavier Frazer s anthology is an epic thought provoking poetry thriller that takes you into the heart of inner city life in Jamaica while addressing social issues, indulging in love, matters of the heart and human desire for self actualization, thus stimulating a global Soul Cry. The author encourages and challenges his audience to accept the past, embrace the present, and while confidently preparing for the future ; a message conveyed with every cry of his soul. The metrical composition of this publication brings life to unspoken words and comfort to wounded souls as it renders its healing by casting light on real life situations. These poems will captivate your mind, body and soul as you embark on this inspirational journey of words. These powerful expressions have touched people worldwide; consequentially moving many to tears. Frazer s Soul Cry is a must read!.
