Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Earthbound Misfits A laugh-out-loud look at the misplaced values of a floundering generation. Edward O Leary is a middle-aged divorcee stuck in a mediocre job. His inability to live up to his deceased father s expectations has crippled his maturation. Originally from affluence, the family fortune as since dwindled, forcing Edward to make a living as a carpenter. It s an honest job offering modest wages. Whatever supplemental income Edward can scrimp and save goes to pay child support to his two children and alimony to his spiteful ex-wife. Edward grew up in an opulent neighborhood in New York. His father s ex business partner, Remy McAllister (a corrupt lawyer) and his family, still live across the street from Edward s former residence. To this day, his best friends remain Pat Keenan and the three McAllister brothers still living at the same address. Into their late thirties and early forties, suffering from Peter Pan Syndrome, the McAllister brothers never grew up. Remy s wife, Tatiana, an established lawyer in her own right, did the best she could raising the three...
