Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Cause and Commencement of the War Between Great Britain and America in 1812: Read Before the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec on the 23rd December, 1879 The treaty of peace between Great Britain and the United States at the conclusion of the war for independence was signed at Versailles on the 8rd of September, 1783. That treaty declared the confederate colonies to be free, sovereign and independent States, and that the King of Great Britain would treat them as such, and relinquish all claims to the Government, propriety, and territorial rights of the States. The King, in his speech from the throne, said: I have sacrificed every consideration of my own to the wishes and Opinion of my people. I make it my humble prayer to Almighty God that Great Britain may not feel the evils which might result from so great a dismemberment of the Empire, and that America may be free from those calamities which have formerly proved, In the mother country, how essential monarchy is to the enjoyment of constitutional liberty. Religion, language, interest, affection, may, and I hope will yet prove a bond of permanent union between the two nations, to this end neither attention nor disposition shall bew wtan ing on my part.
