Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Euthanasia: A Poem in Four Cantos of Spenserian Metre on the Discovery of the North-West Passage by Sir John Franklin, Knight There are two, I scarcely know what to call them, notions or prejudices, which the writer of a poem of any length and pretensions in these days may expect to hear quoted. The first of these is that somewhat vague and general assertion that our age is not a poetic age, that rather it is a great epoch for practical efforts and results of every sort, a hard-working utilitarian time, devoted to manufacturing, engineering, trade, commerce, and political economy, but alien in its instincts and tendencies from poetry, with neither leisure to cultivate it nor inclination to attend to it. No very logical and precise answer can be here attempted to such a statement. Solvitur ambulando. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
