Opening Statement of Chairman Hughes Mr. Hughes. The Subcommittee on Intellectual Property and Judicial Administration will come to order. We will now hear testimony on legislation which will extend the surcharge on patent fees first implemented in fiscal year 1991 until fiscal year 1998. After this short hearing, we will then proceed to mark up on the legislation with high expectation that we will probably have to recess and meet after the first vote on the floor today to try to conclude the markup. This hearing and markup are necessary in order...
