Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Sermon on the Occasion of the Death of General William Henry Harrison: Late President of the United States, Delivered in the Chapel of Randolph Maoon College, April 18, 1841 But whence originates this wicked, this godless sentiment? Who has expelled the Deity from one of the most important provinces of his empire, and made worms, all at once, in the success of an insurrectionary movement, independent of Him? What, but the pride and presumption of the heart, has had the tendency, by putting out the eyes, to hide him from the sight of mortals; and will allow that myriads of intelligent beings, in their secular capacities, appear and disappear from the theatre of life; that nations aggregate and dissolve; empires rise and fall; and that princes reign and are deposed, without the special oversight and will of God? To assert this high prerogative, to shed a salutary influence upon the infidel mind of man, to exact the rightful tribute from his reluctant hand, to build the fortunes of a people upon the smiles of their God, to utter an indignant rebuke upon the self-prompted vanity of sinners, to warn aspiring states of their impending doom; the voice of inspiration publishes the high and solemn truth, that both in the minute and great affairs of the human family, there are the actual presence and agency of God. So much, at least, are we warranted in saying, is the doctrine of this passage: For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south; but God is the judge; he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
