Gospel Inks, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Beating the Odds is the story of Dr. Virginia Howard, an African American woman who is a pioneer in education. Virginia was born in the midst of the Great Depression when prospects were daunting. But she overcame every obstacle. She lived through the period of history when the rights of African Americans were horribly violated and the civil rights movement was forged. Virginia Howard beat the odds every time by circumventing the prevailing limitations and restrictions of the economic, social, political and cultural climate of the times in which she lived. Virginia Howard s story is one of hope. It inspires you to keep pressing forward even in the midst life s challenges and oppositions. Virginia obtained a college education when it was difficult for women, more so black women, to achieve. In 1956, she earned a Bachelor s Degree from Minor Teachers College, and went on to earn a Master s Degree and PhD from George Washington University. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. But most importantly, she is a pioneer and forerunner to say the least. She is successfully accomplishing God s plan and purpose for her life as she strives to excel in this new season. As a member of Matthew 6:33 Global Ministry she serves as the mother of the church, equipping the members with needed wisdom and knowledge. She Beat the Odds! And so can you!.
