Reviews

A brand new electronic book with a new standpoint. It is written in basic phrases rather than confusing. It has been designed in an extremely basic way which is merely right after I finished reading through this publication where it basically altered me, change the way I believe.

Such fine shall belong to the school commissioners or trustees of the municipality, as the case may be, and shall be by them employed for the benefit and advancement of education in their municipality. R. S. Q., art. 2197. 436. If any school commissioner, trustee, or secretary-treasurer, after dismissal, or retirement from office, or any other person whatever retains, keeps, or takes possession of or refuses to deliver up, any book, paper, tiling, money, sum of money, insignia, or any object belonging to the school commissioners or trustees of any school municipality, he shall thereby incur, for each day during which he retains, appropriates or refuses to deliver such book, paper, thing, money, or sum of money, insignia or any other object whatever, a fine of not less than five or more than twenty dollars. Such fine may be sued for and be recovered in one and the same action, after notice from the superintendent ordering. him to deposit or deliver into the hands of the person indicated in such notice, which may be served by a bailiff of the Superior Court, upon the person mentioned in the notice, either in person or at his domicile; and the said bailiff shall make his return of such service to the superintendent, under his oath of office, and thenceforward the said notice or return shall be authentic. R. S. Q. , art. 2198. 437. The superintendent may, in the same action, demand the return of such...
