Excerpt from Library of Christian Cooperation, Vol. 1 of 2 At the preliminary meeting of the Federal Council in New York in 1905, at which the objects of the proposed federation were set forth, Chief Justice David J. Brewer struck the note of international peace in these words: The longing of humanity has been for peace on earth. That was the song of the angels at Bethlehem, and the more that song stirs the hearts of men the nearer will be the glad day. This nation, where the people rule, should ever be strong for peace, for the burden and curse of war rest upon them. The united voice of the Christian church of America, the united effort of all denominations, would compel the government to take a higher position. Do not turn the peace movement over to the Quakers alone. Let us all catch the sweet echoes of Bethlehem s song, and, as one, affirm that the time has come when the sword shall be turned into the plowshare and the spear into the pruning-hook. Our country in many respects has a noble record. The grand declaration of Secretary Hay that American diplomacy is founded on the Golden Rule lifted this nation into a higher position as a world power than the victories at Manila and Santiago de Cuba. The grand triumphal peace between Russia and Japan was largely due to our chief executive. Yet, notwithstanding all this, we cannot be oblivious to the fact that there is much itching for more and larger battleships, and the pride, pomp, and circumstance of glorious war still make a large appeal to many. We love the power that is material. As against...
