Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the year 2050 children s toys are wackier than they ve ever been. With technology only limited by the imagination of the clever inventors who come up with these crazy new devices, there s enough flashy machines capturing the attention of children to keep parents busy for a whole year. But the toy every kid wants in 2050, including twins Zac and Bev, is the Infinity Junior Time Machine. After being disappointed with a speed flight remote control helicopter for their previous birthday, Zac and Bev have spent the last year praying and hoping that their Mum and Dad would surprise them with their own Infinity Time Machine. However, when the big day finally arrives and they unwrap their brand new present, it turns out that the time machine isn t just a toy - it actually works! Warped back in time without their parents permission, Zac and Bev discover a world entirely unlike the super slick reality of 2050. Seeing new exotic places and exploring dangerous periods throughout history, the twins have to come together and follow the toy s instructions if they want to get back home. With illustrations that bring Cpt. Sprocket s imaginative new children s book, The Time Machine Twins, to life, Zac and Bev will find out what happens when 2050 s most popular toy turns out to be a fully functional scientific breakthrough!.
