Kingdom Ministries Canada, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Love! We have all thought about it. Perhaps we have questioned as to what it really is. Maybe we have struggled with it. Knew the joys and tears that some forms of love brought our way. I m sure we have known something that wasn t really love at all. We have longed for it, dreamed of it and even prayed for it. In this, we are no different from many people whose stories are portrayed in the Bible. Love, is so complex that it s simple! In this book, we will journey with many who have struggled with, searched for, and finally embraced loving submission in their lives. They wanted the freedom to love. They wanted the freedom to choose. Still many fought, not for it, but against it. The stories of relationships, you are about to enjoy, oozes with devotion, betrayal, immorality and restoration. They carry for us, real life lessons directing us back into the heart of perfection that we once knew. We will encounter successes and failures through every chapter. Plots that unfold with every page turned! Together we will explore how life takes amazing twists and turns. We plan, we grow moving steadily towards our dreams. We think that life goes on forever! Then, disaster strikes with uncaring cruelty. We will confront truths that drip with the reality of the days in which we live. Have you ever considered divorce? It s pretty shocking to open the pages of Scripture and find one of the Bible s heroes contemplating divorce. When Joseph makes his first appearance in the biblical story, that s exactly what he is doing. Taking our journey from...
