

The Capricorni Conundrum (Paperback)

By David Casler

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Capricorni want to colonize earth, but after a thirty-year voyage they arrive to find it already inhabited. According to Capricorni custom, they have exactly two options: make a finding that earth s civilization is advanced, in which case they will turn around and go home, or exterminate all the earthlings and proceed with colonization. But to choose one of these options, the thousand-plus Capricorni must vote. But neither option can muster the required 60 majority. They have a conundrum. What shall they do? The great Division has persisted for several years and they are running out of supplies. Ogmores is a Capricorni who has not yet been elected an adult, and his chances of election are zero as long as the Division persists. He wants to help his younger brother, lame in his back legs. To do anything he must have authority. Capricornis never do anything without authority. Ogmores thinks Admiral Canary has given him unlimited authority. But is he right about that? The Capricorni Earth Study Group has discovered that the Berki made contact with earthlings a year...
