Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.THE CHILDRENS BOOK OF CHRISTMAS STORIES Strictly speaking, a December card is a greeting card specifically oriented for the December celebrations of December 25th. The winter card is a message to all the people here and gone that we will remember them every year when the weather gets a bit colder. More occassionally than you might like to admit, a December card is the only news your friends and family get from you over the year. A winter card is the way to bring our love and wishes of happiness and health to all people we know. The winter card is a charming addition to traditional seasonal pop music. In theory sending a Christmas card is a gesture of regard so straightforward that it borders on the banal. Most December cards are printed on a premium paper and comes with matching envelopes. The winter card is not a Danish invention, but came to the country from England where the first Christmas card was sent in 1842. The first Xmas card is thought to have been designed by British artist John Horsley in 1840, a Royal Academician. The December card is a Victorian creation, which began as a kind of stationery. The founder of the American Christmas card is said to be Louis Prang of Boston who printed a wide variety of album cards and visiting cards. The corporate December card is a later invention, that wonderfully heart felt standard issue message from one company to another company. in fact the corporate December card is a relatively modern invention. A more recent invention is the photo winter card which is not likely to make it to the rubbish bin but...
