Ruthless Campaign A Womans Guide to Political Victory

By J. D. Herman

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 140 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.3in. Methods and Motives for the Small-Town Woman Candidate. . . During your political run for office. . . you will get bruised, tattered, and crushed by the political campaign process. There will be punches and jabs-but with a good memory and a professional, responsible campaign, you can patiently wait it all out. . . and get your revenge later. In this delightful new book, Judy Herman holds nothing back. She gives you her best on how to run for down-ticket public office and how to play the game, based on her years of being tormented, inspired, and pestered by the likes of Tea Partier Sharon Angle, Republican Cuckolder Senator John Ensign, the powerful Democrat Senator Harry Reid, and the omnipotent Gannett newspapers. Herman believes women candidates must eat what they kill and savor the taste of victory. This book is chock full of open secrets and provocative honesty- written especially for women seeking down-ticket political offices. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
