Also any member of a family of an officer of the Army of the Tennessee who has died and did not belong to the Society is eligible to become a member. I think if the members would take an interest in letting that be known we can draw with us, daughters and sons of a good many of our members who do not know that fact. I think you all appreciate what great aid and pleasure it is for us to see the wives and daughters and the sons of the members here. All that is necessary is to make application to the secretary and send in the fee. General Hickenlooper: --I think it advisable to supplement the remarks of the President by calling attention of the members to the fact that there is a distinction between successors and other members. The succession takes effect upon the death of a member only, and does not carry with it any obligation for initiation fee. The membership to which the President referred carries with it the obligations of membership fee and dues. The President: --Any member of any member s family can become a member in full standing of the Society by making the proper application and paying ten dollars entrance fee and one dollar yearly dues. Captain Everest: --If it is...
