Dr. Workman Made in the Meeting of the Board Governors, Wesleyan Theological College, Sept. 17th, 1907 Besides containing a most offensive insinuation, this section contains at least one inaccurate statement, or incorrect assertion, and the reference to what I stated in the General Conference last fall is most unfair. What I said in my evidence before the Libel committee is, that all men are born innocent, that all Christian children are born in Christ, and that they are all members of the kingdom of heaven at birth, in other words, that all children are born in the image of God, as the editor of the Sunday School Times said a few weeks since. The term Sin is derived from a Latin word signifying guilty. Sin, therefore, denotes guilt, and implies a moral act. For that reason, I do not think it fair to speak of men who are born in wedlock and of pure parents as being born in Sin. That is the point against which I protested on the floor of the General Conference when the statement in the ritual was under consideration, and not only did certain brethren, both ministers and laymen, come to express their appreciation of what I said, but a good many of the delegates also supported my proposal. When I told my brethren at the Conference that the narrative in Genesis says nothing about any curse having been pronounced upon his posterity by the sin of Adam. I supported my assertion by a declaration from Dr. Chalmers, who recognized the same significant fact. And who, referring to the third chapter of Genesis, stated in his Institutes of Theology more...
