

The Sea: A Celebration in Photographs

By Pierre Borhan

Editions Flammarion. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Sea: A Celebration in Photographs, Pierre Borhan, This is an album of classic and contemporary prints devoted to the sea, as seen through the lens of the world's finest photographers. Canvas sails strain against the wind and propel a boat along its course, translucent green waves break over jagged rocks, port's bustle with the to-ing and fro-ing of cruise ships and commercial vessels, a steel-gray horizon cuts a boundless stripe across the shoreline such images captivate the imagination and manifest the ever-changing character of the sea. Pierre Borhan has taken this enduring and alluring subject and mapped out a unique photographic journey through images that reflect the majesty of this powerful force of nature. Bringing together 300 historical, documentary, and art photographs, the sea is chronicled from photography's earliest hour to the present day. "The Sea: A Celebration in Photographs" brings to life the fury of crashing waves, the infinite calm of a windless day, the desolate beauty of a frozen landscape, the stoic and solitary beacon of a lighthouse, and portraits of the men and women who navigate their lives around the ebb and flow of the oceans current.
