

Your Story: Going to Nursery

By Gina Hashrard

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a book for young children who are starting preschool or nursery, and might be nervous about separation from their parents. Very young children may benefit from simple, positive reinforcement. If you tell your child that something is fun, they should believe you and, all being well, something like nursery should indeed turn out to be lots and lots of fun! This book is intended to help your child realise that, although they are separated from you briefly, they will have lots of fun in the meantime, and Mummy or Daddy will soon be there to take them home again at the end of the day. As with all books in the Your Story series, there is a space for a picture of the child concerned on the last page.
