The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

I am truly grateful for the honour thus put on me beyond both my desert and expectation, and will prove my appreciation of your kindness by endeavouring on the present occasion once more to address you as your President, though I would have been much more pleased to have listened quietly to-night to our warmly esteemed President-elect. But I console myself with the reflection that when enjoying (as I hope we all may be permitted) his address next year at this season, you will not fail to realise that, by my involuntary interposition, it has, like good wine in the bush, gained in strength and flavour by another year s keeping. Our venerable ex-President, Mr. Glover, when paying us a very welcome but too brief flying visit a few weeks ago, complained to me that my last year s address was somewhat too general, not dealing with the local conditions of our work.
