BRILLIANCE AUDIO, 2014. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. A returning war hero and the woman who once loved him are brought together again--but will they be able to heal the wounds of their past? Kari Winslow is a Palm Beach news reporter, fighting not only to keep her job, but take over the nightly anchor spot. Her boss has axed her special runaway series, and wants feel good stories instead. She has only two weeks to come up with something big, or the special series will be taken over by the new anchorman who seems determined to ruin her career. Jake Harrington has returned from two tours in Iraq, and this wounded warrior is searching for peace--and a family friend who s gone missing. He turns to his former love Kari for help. Though Jake hurt Kari badly once before, she agrees to help him under one condition: he must provide her with feel good stories about the everyday heroes he served with. But his memory is sketchy at best, and the only stories he remembers are the ones she doesn t want to hear. Fate, it seems, has brought them back together--but can Kari ever forget Jakes bitter betrayal, and will he forgive hers when to save her career she must betray his trust.?
