

Letters from Abroad to Kindred at Home - Vol. I. (Paperback)

By Catharine Marie Sedgwick

White Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This early work by American novelist Catharine Maria Sedgwick was originally published in 1841. Sedgwick produced such popular novels as: Hope Leslie , and The Linwoods , with the genre of her work often classified as domestic fiction . This particular work is an example of her non-fiction, recording her observations during a tour around Europe. This is the first volume of the work, and is presented as a series of letters that detail her travels to cities such as London, Geneva, Bonn, and Brussels. This is a fantastic read for anyone interested in the sights and society of Europe during the mid-nineteenth century. To compliment the republication of this work, a brand new introductory biography of the author has been added.
