BLOODAXE BOOKS LTD, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ahren Warner s second collection of poems opens with the sequence Lutece, te amo: a raw paean to the Paris it inhabits that flits between past and present and offers both adoration and horror in equal measure. Elsewhere, London licks and laps ; an anonymous man works his bones with a micro-plane and translations of Baudelaire and Kojève rub shoulders with Kurt Cobain and Little Lord Tory-Tit . More capricious, fleshly and darker than Warner s previous work, Pretty culminates in Nervometer: thirteen poems hovering between a collage, translation and performance of Antonin Artaud s Le Pese-nerfs, which bring Pretty to a beautifully ugly end.
